

1a Put these names in the correct group.

Buck Charles Dave François Hal John Thornton Mercedes Perrault Spitz

Dogs	People

1b Look at the pictures. Write the correct words.

1c Why are the dogs frightened of the men? What do the men use? Circle the pictures in 1b.

2 Answer the questions.

1 Why do people have dogs now?

.....

2 Why did they have them in the past?

.....

3 Read the sentences. Write the correct names from 1a.

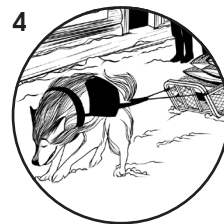

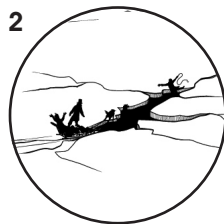

1 Buck watched the two men and the woman, and he did not like them very much. Their camp was very untidy. and

2 He had an important job; he carried letters for the Canadian Government. He knew a lot about dogs, and when he saw Buck he was very happy.

3 He was a big, strong dog with thick, warm fur. He was four years old, and he lived with a rich family in a big house in California. He was part of the family, and everybody loved him.

4 He was a big, white dog from Norway. At dinner, he tried to take Buck's food. He was the number-one dog in the line.

4 Match the pictures with the sentences. Draw a line between them.

a Buck walked slowly down the street with the sled behind him.

b But Spitz was bigger and stronger. His teeth cut into Buck.

c Hal, Charles, Mercedes, and the four dogs fell through the ice into the water.

d The men saw him again, running at the head of the wolves.

e Thornton caught Buck and put his arms around him.

5 In the story, who does Buck like? Who doesn't he like? Write the people and dogs.

Buck likes:
Buck doesn't like:

6 What do you think happens next? Write about Buck living with the wolves.

A large rectangular area with horizontal dashed lines for writing, featuring a curled bottom-right corner.