15th May, Whitby

Dear Mina,

Thank you for your letter. I'm really sorry but I have very little to say about our holiday here in Whitby. A young man called Mr Arthur Holmwood often comes to see us. He and my mother talk a lot together. One day he brought a friend, a doctor called Jack Seward. He's only twenty-nine, but he's very clever. I think he comes from a very good family and is quite rich. Now he visits us, too. That is all my news. So, you can see . . . this boring town is not like our wonderful London! Write soon.

Your good friend,

Lucy

P.S. Oh, Mina! We can talk about everything. I have known you since I was a child. So I must say something more. Can you guess? I think I love Dr Seward! There, I have said it. I love him! I don't know if he loves me – I think he does. What do you think? Write and tell me!

LOST AT SEA

Yesterday evening there was a storm, and a Russian ship got into trouble. Terrible winds broke the ship and pushed it on to the rocks at Whitby. When it came on to the rocks, a huge black dog jumped from it and ran to the hills. The only person on the ship was the captain. He was dead, and he held a crucifix in his hands. There were also fifty very strange big, long boxes on the ship. They had only earth inside them.

26th October, Varna, Bulgaria

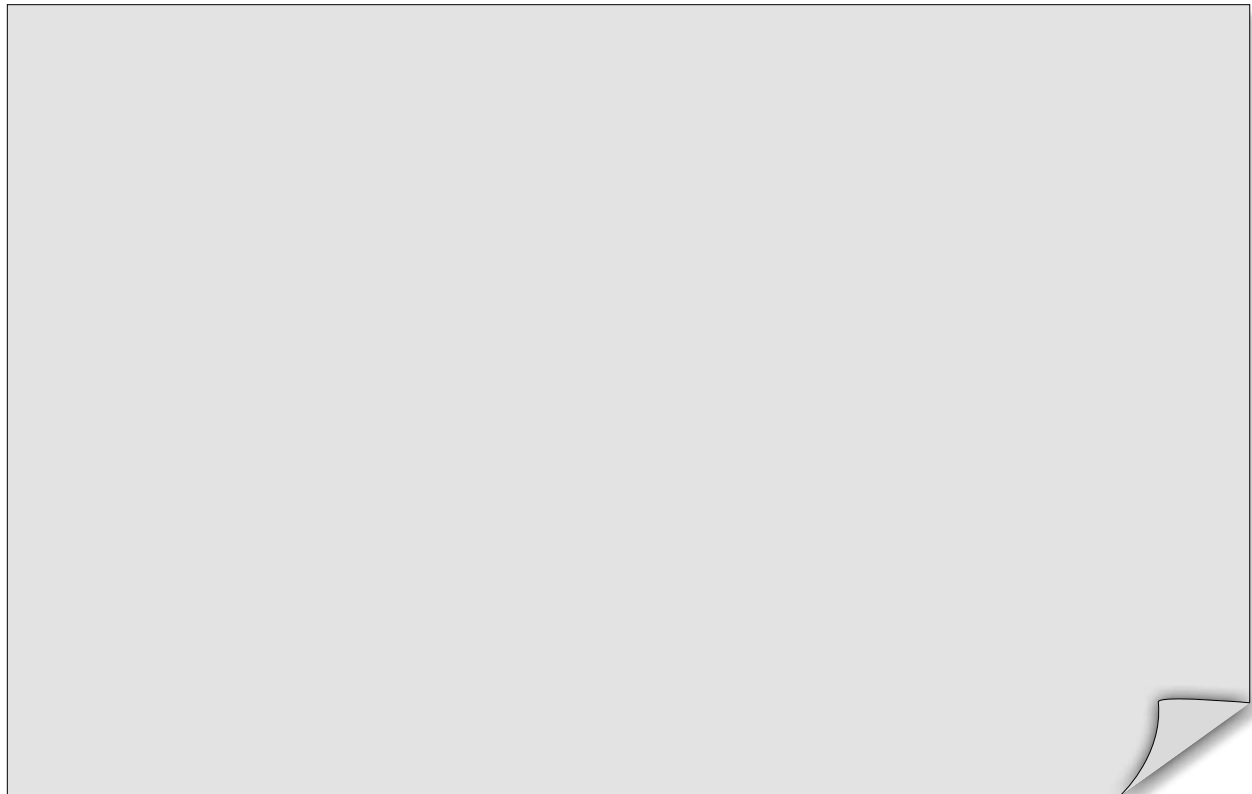

We arrived in Varna a week ago, after three days of travelling. Since then, we have waited for the Czarina Catherine to arrive. Oh, when will the ship come?

I have helped him to buy a building in England and to move there!

4

I have stopped walking while I'm sleeping, but I've had lots of bad dreams.
