

1a Match the “Adventurous Girls” to where you think they come from.

What do you know about these countries?

- | | |
|------------|------------|
| 1 Tamasha | a India |
| 2 Tokoyo | b Japan |
| 3 Chandra | c China |
| 4 Sea Girl | d Zanzibar |

1b After you read the stories, check your ideas. Were they correct?

2 Do the crossword.

Across

- 4 This is an ugly creature from stories that can be big or small.
- 6 A thing can hurt you.

Down

- 1 This is how you feel when you are near something from 6 across.
- 2 This person stops people coming into a place.
- 3 A country, or part of a country, with water on every side of it.
- 5 If someone put this on you, bad things happen to you.

3 Look and write.

Name:
Country:
Problem:
Who does she help? (Or who helps her?)
Words to describe her:

4 Write the correct names.

- found a lake on a mountain? 1.....
- cleaned the elephants' ears? 2.....
- found a beautiful white shell on the beach? 3.....
- Who . . . travelled for many weeks over the sea? 4.....
- discovered a statue? 5.....
- stopped a curse? 6.....
- taught the Rajah not to be greedy? 7.....
- spoke to three birds? 8.....

5 You are one of the Adventurous Girls. Write a blog about your adventures.

Write about:

- what happened to you after the story
- what happened to other characters from the story
- how you felt before and how you feel now
- how you think you changed

6 Choose one of the stories. You want to make a film about the story in the present day.

Write your ideas.

New title:
Actor to play title character:
Actors to play other characters:
New setting:
New problem:
What happens at the end?

7 What other fairy tales do you know? What are the differences between the girls in those fairy tales and the girls in the book?

A large rectangular area with a light gray background, containing ten horizontal dotted lines for writing.