

1a Complete the family tree. Use the names in the box.

Catherine Frances Hareton Isabella Linton

1b Put these words in the correct group of characteristics.

angry clever kind moody lonely naughty nervous proud rough spoiled strange strong stupid sweet unfriendly unkind weak wild

1c Which people have the characteristics from 1b? How and when do they show them in the story?

Catherine	Cathy	Edgar	Hareton
Heathcliff	Hindley	Isabella	Linton

2a Put the words together. Write the new words or expressions.

- | | | |
|-----------|--------|-------|
| 1 black | ring | |
| 2 guest | lord | |
| 3 house | ledge | |
| 4 land | keeper | |
| 5 wedding | house | |
| 6 window | haired | |

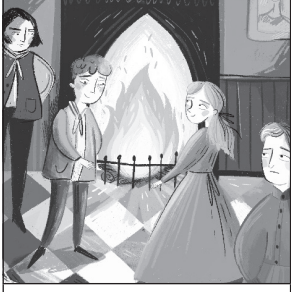

2b Complete the sentences. Use the new words or expressions from 2a.

- 1 Two days ago, I visited my new, Mr Heathcliff, at Wuthering Heights.
- 2 The books began to move forward on the
- 3 I guessed that this large lady with the kind voice was the, Zillah.
- 4 Above Catherine's head I saw a dirty, child.
- 5 Then, she took off her and threw it into the fire.
- 6 I could stay in my own bed instead of a

2c Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

- 1 I knew that "wuthering" was a Yorkshire word meaning "the bleeding / blowing of the wind on the moor".
- 2 The dog groaned / growled at me if I came near.
- 3 I remembered the name I had seen bruised / scratched in the paint: "Catherine Heathcliff".
- 4 She liked to tease / trick her father that she had more power over Heathcliff than he did.
- 5 "What can I do?" asked Cathy. "If I stay, father will be worried and unhappy. He will think that I have betrayed / parted him."
- 6 "You are a terrible man, Mr Heathcliff. You must not bury / disturb the dead," I said.

3 Look at the pictures of some important scenes in the story. Complete the table.

Scene	Who's in the scene?	What is happening?	Why is it important?
a
b
c
d
e

4a Who said these things? Write the correct names.

- | | | | | | |
|-----------|-------|------------|---------|-------------|-------|
| Catherine | Cathy | Heathcliff | Hareton | Mr Lockwood | Nelly |
|-----------|-------|------------|---------|-------------|-------|

1 Let me go, and I will let you in.

.....

2 If you wash your face and brush your hair then you will look fine, but you are so dirty!

.....

3 When you become Edgar Linton's wife, he will lose his friend, his love and everything which is important to him.

.....

4 You have betrayed me, Catherine, and if you think that I don't know it, then you are stupid.

.....

5 But I can't go to Wuthering Heights. Father said that I mustn't.

.....

6 Difficult, then. And now kiss me for saying it so well.

.....

4b Who are they talking to, or about?

1

2

3

4

5

6

5a Think about the people that get married in Wuthering Heights. Why do they get married? Are they happy? Why/Why not? Could they be happy with another person? Who?

Frances and Hindley

.....
.....

Catherine and Edgar

.....
.....

Heathcliff and Isabella

.....
.....

Cathy and Linton

.....
.....

Cathy and Hareton

.....
.....

5b Many people die in Wuthering Heights. Who are they, and how or why do they die?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

5c How would you describe life for the people in the story Wuthering Heights?

.....

.....

.....

.....

6 Choose two characters from Wuthering Heights. Imagine they are alive today. Write some text messages between the two people about one of the scenes in the book. In their messages, say what happened, why it happened, and how they feel now.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

7 Imagine you are rewriting Wuthering Heights. Which parts of the story would you change? How and why?

A large rectangular area with a light gray background, containing 20 horizontal dotted lines for writing.