Dear Mark,

I hope this letter finds you well.

I've got a lot to tell you about since we last saw each other.

It all started when Sophie, Freddie Hamid's girlfriend, found me at the hotel reception and gave me some papers to <sup>1</sup> ..... . From then on, things just got worse and worse. After Sophie's murder, which I feel partly responsible for, I left to work in another hotel where I met a <sup>2</sup> ..... man and his bodyguards. Not only was the man a <sup>3</sup> ..... , but he was also directly responsible for Sophie's death.

Luckily, I was recruited by a man named Burr to work as an agent. I had to do quite intensive <sup>4</sup> ..... , but that was nothing compared to the danger I've been in. I've flown on a plane to the <sup>5</sup> ..... , I've had to <sup>6</sup> ..... to an office using a <sup>7</sup> ..... , and I've been threatened by <sup>8</sup> ..... . The list goes on!

Anyway, I am now living a quiet life in a small cottage, away from the world of <sup>9</sup> ..... and <sup>10</sup> ..... – terrible things that they are – and I am happy.

It would be great to see you if you are ever in Cornwall.

All the best,

Jonathan
