3b Model answers:

Box Hill is a beautiful place near Highbury. They all go for a picnic there and Emma is unkind to Miss Bates.

Donwell is where Mr Knightley lives. They all go to pick strawberries there and Jane goes home early because she is upset.

Hartfield House is where Emma and Mr Woodhouse live, and where Mr Knightley goes to live when he marries Emma.

Ireland is where Mr and Mrs Campbell go to visit their daughter, Mrs Dixon, and her new husband.

Maple Grove is where Mrs Elton's rich sister-in-law lives, near Bath. She talks about it all the time.

Weymouth is where Jane Fairfax meets Frank Churchill and where they become engaged.

4	Scene	Quote	Who said it to whom?	Why is it important?
		"Will you allow me to take it to London to buy a frame for it?"	Mr Elton to Emma	Because Emma thinks he loves Harriet, but really he wants to please her.
		"I believe that if a woman cannot decide, then she should say no."	Emma to Harriet	Because Emma doesn't want Harriet to marry Mr Martin.
		"What a wonderful piano! Mr Campbell and all his friends in Ireland chose it very well."	Mr Churchill to Emma	Because he wants Emma to think that Jane Fairfax loves Mr Dixon.
		"Oh, I'm not dancing tonight. But I'm sure there is a young lady who would like to dance."	Mrs Weston to Mr Elton	Mr Elton won't dance with Harriet, so Mr Knightley does and then she falls in love with him.
		"I will try to keep quiet, and not be so annoying."	Miss Bates to Mr Knightley	After Emma has been unkind to her, by saying she can only say three dull things and no more.
