 - a Laura Fairlie is inexperienced and easy to influence.
 - b Sir Percival Glyde is nervous, dangerous and doesn't care about others.
 - c Marian Halcombe is strong and protective. She is the one who eventually helps Laura to escape, not Walter.
 - d Walter Hartright is brave, determined, thorough and in love with Laura. He is perhaps the hero of the story.
 - e Count Fosco is the villain (bad character) of the story. He is dishonest and mysterious, has secrets and is good at controlling people.
