30	Who is in the picture?	Where are they and what are they doing?	Why is this part of the book important?
	Pauline and Petrova	They are at the theatre in a play called A Midsummer's Night's Dream. They are flying on stage.	Petrova likes flying and decides she wants to learn about aeroplanes.
	Pauline	Pauline is auditioning for a film about Charles the Second outside London.	Because Mr Reubens sees the film and wants her to move to Hollywood.
	Posy and Manoff	They are at the theatre.  Posy is dancing for  Manoff on stage.	Because Manoff says she can study at his school.
	Gum, Pauline, Petrova and Posy	They are at the house in Cromwell Road and Gum has just come home after a long time.	Because all the girls can do what they want to now.
