

1a Model answers:

- 1 Ian McEwan
- 2 Fiona Maye, a High Court Judge in the Family Division, and her personal and professional life. She must decide what to do about Adam Henry, who doesn't want medical treatment because of his religion.
- 3 the courts in London and in other parts of England

1b 1 b 2 b 3 a 4 c 5 a

2 Reader's own answers.

3a Model answers:

Character	Job	What are they like?	What do they believe and want?	What happens to them?
Fiona	a High Court judge	understanding, reasonable and highly intelligent	In the rights of children.	Her private life is affected by her work life.
Jack	a professor of History	honest and passionate	In passion – he wants to have an affair.	He returns to his wife.
Adam	a student	highly intelligent and religious	He is prepared to die for his faith.	He does die for his faith.
Mr Henry	a builder / runs a small digging company	He used to be a bit wild, but now he is very religious.	He wants his son to get well without a blood transfusion, which is against his religion.	He argues with his son.

3b Model answers:

- 2 If Jack hadn't had an affair, Fiona wouldn't have changed the locks.
- 3 If Fiona hadn't given the judgment, Adam would not have had the treatment.
- 4 If Adam had not met Fiona, he would have continued being a Jehovah's witness.
- 5 If Fiona had phoned Adam, he might not have decided to die.

3c Reader's own answer.

4 Model answers:

Law	Medicine	Religion
accusation	cancer	Bible
barrister	cell	elder
case	drug	faith
clerk	Intensive Care	heaven
defence	operation	pray
innocence	sick	Satan
judgment	transfusion	soul
justice	ward	Torah

5 Reader's own answers.

6a Reader's own answers.

6b Reader's own answers.