4 Complete the text. Choose from the sentences (a–g) below. There are two extra sentences.

Quey had received a message from his old friend Cudjo, but he did not know how he would answer.

¹............ Quey did not like staying in the village. He preferred his life in England, or even in Cape Coast Castle. The village was hot and full of biting insects.

Quey had not worked in the village for long. Before his father, James Collins, died, Quey worked in an office in the Castle. ²............

"We need to improve our relationship with Abeeku Badu's village," he said. "We've heard that they're working with new independent companies, and we don't want that. ³............. We want you to go and make them sign our trade agreement."

Quey had nodded and accepted his new job, but he was not happy about it. For some reason, Quey felt like he was being punished for something.

At sunrise, Quey went to visit his uncle Fiifi. It was difficult to believe that Fiifi was really his uncle.

⁴...... Quey did not think they looked like family at all.

"Good morning, my son!" said Fiifi when he saw Quey approaching. "Sit and eat with me." Quey sat down as Fiifi's servant girl brought out bowls of breakfast for them.

"Uncle, I've been here for a month," said Quey. "But we still haven't spoken about our trade agreements. We can give you more money, but you have to promise to stop working with other companies."

Fiifi did not listen. ⁵............ Quey had given the same speech many times before, but Fiifi always ignored him.

- a Because of your parents' history and your Uncle Fiifi, I think you would be very helpful in the village.
- b But after James's death, the new governor of Cape Coast Castle made some changes.
- c Fiifi was a big man with strong muscles, while Quey was the exact opposite.
- d He grew up in the Castle and spent most of his time with his mother, Effia.
- e He never did.
- f He was in his mother Effia's old village, trying his best to sleep.
- g While the two men spoke about trade, he continued eating.

How could I be scared of losing against someone with such small arms.

Yes. I don't want to. No, I know you wouldn't hurt me.

I'll wrestle you now. You've never been too tired to win.

Cudjo: When will you wrestle me?

Quey: 1

Cudjo: Why? Are you scared you'll lose?

Quey: 2

Cudjo: My arms aren't small! Does this feel small to you? Were you scared, Quey?

Quey: 3

Cudjo: Are you sure?

Quey: 4

Cudjo: Wrestle me!

Cudjo: You only want to wrestle now because you know I'm too tired to win.

Quey: 6

Cudjo: OK, we can wrestle if you catch me first!
