3 1 Tom hated water. He had never traveled anywhere on it before.
2 His parents had drowned in Boston Harbor, and Tom had always thought this had something to do with it.
3 For as long as he could remember, he had been afraid of water.
4 In less than a week he would have water below him, miles deep, and he would have to look at it most of the time.
5 Tom had told Bob Delancey that he was leaving in a week, but Bob did not seem very interested.
6 He left his aunt with no address so she would not be able to find him.

14 1 Yes, but he went back to America a month ago.
2 Yes.
3 No, I saw him in Rome. I don't know exactly when it was. Why do you think he is dead?
4 Yes, I think we did. Why?
5 Of course.
6 No, I don't. Why don't you try Paris? Or Genoa? He always stays in small hotels because he prefers them.
7 No. I don't even know him that well. I think he had a friend in Florence, but I don't remember their name.

4 To do what Richard wanted, and give his money to Tom.
5 He thought that it must be a joke.
6 To the best one.

24 1 He asked at the post office for Dickie's /
Richard Greenfield's address.
2 Tom asked if he could leave his suitcase
there.
3 Dickie asked Tom if he was going home
for Christmas.
4 The man at the hotel desk in San Remo asked where his friend was.

25 1 Something always turned up, that's what Tom believed.
2 He could get his George McAlpin post sent there without anyone finding out what he was really doing.

3 Dickie replied that was stupid, but that afternoon he went on his own to try to make it up with Marge, which disappointed Tom.
4 He hated putting on his old clothes and
feeling that people looked down on him.
5 But how would he get rid of the body?
6 He took a step back and pulled off one of his shoes then picked it up in both hands.
