8 1 Angel did not notice Tess at first.
2 She spoke so little, and the other maids talked so much, it was easy to miss her.
3 One morning at breakfast, he heard a voice he did not know and turned to see who owned it.
4 Angel continued to stare at her, and realized there was something in her that he recognized.
5 He was sure he had seen her before.
6 But he and Tess did not get much chance to speak until one warm evening in June, when Tess heard the sound of a harp as she was walking through the garden.

12 1 A present of some meat and a bottle of apple cider, sent by Mrs Crick.
2 Miss Mercy Chant, the woman who his parents wanted him to marry.
3 He was strict, but he was also a kind man who did much for the poor and unfortunate.
4 He did not feel like one of the family any more.
5 Because Talbothays had changed him.
6 He had given it to the children of a neighbour who had no work.

13 1 Because I am not good enough for you.
2 Yes, something like that. Your friends would laugh at me.
3 I don't reject you. I like you to tell me you love me.
4 It is for your own good.
5 Ah – you think so, but you don't know!
