	was always happy and bright
	had a lot of friends
	knew a lot of funny stories

7 1 She's all right. I know how to get her to do what I want. She really likes me.

- 2 There's nothing like a servant.
 3 I used to pick girls up on the street, I used to take them out on the tram, take them to a play at the theatre, or buy them chocolate and presents. I spent a lot of money on them.
 4 You're right. It's no good.
 5 No problem. She'll be there. I always let her wait a bit.
 6 I do. I understand women.
 7 I'll manage it. Just be quiet about it.

14 1 The friend that he had known as a poor and badly dressed man was now a successful writer for the London newspapers.
 2 Little Chandler turned from his boring work as a clerk in a law office to look out of the window.
 3 The light of the late autumn afternoon sun fell on the grass and paths.

4 It lay a golden dust on the untidy nurses and old men on the seats.

5 It lit the children who ran screaming, and everyone who walked through the gardens.

6 He watched it all and felt a little sad. He knew that he could not change his future.
