3a Model answers:

	Who is in the picture?	Where are they and what are they doing?	Why is this picture important?
	Tracy as a baby and her mum	They are outside, maybe in a park. Tracy's mum is holding her.	Because it is how Tracy thinks of her mum.
Carlotte and Carlo	Tracy and her mum and Justine	Tracy and her mum are in the car and they are driving over Justine.	This is what Tracy wants to do to Justine.
	Cam and all the children at the children's home	They are in the children's home. Cam comes to talk to the children about writing.	Tracy wants to be a writer. The other children are unkind to her.
	Tracy and Peter	They are in the children's home. They are sitting on the floor in the middle of the night because they cannot sleep.	Tracy is nice to Peter because he is sad too.
	Tracy and Justine	They are in the children's home. Tracy gives Justine the Mickey Mouse pen from Cam.	This is the first nice thing Tracy does for Justine.

3b Model answers:

- 1 Picture 2 is not true because Tracy does not drive over Justine. It is just what she would like to do. (Picture 1 was true but it is not true now.)
- 2 Reader's own answer.
- 3 Peter, because he is sad too. They are friends by the end of the story. Justine, because her dad does not visit her and she is sad too. Tracy gives her the Mickey Mouse pen. Cam, because Cam takes Tracy to McDonald's and helps her to write.
