	Who is in the picture?	Where are they and what are they doing?	Why is this picture important?
	A boy and his father	They are at the protests in Soweto and the police shot the boy.	Because the photo went around the world and people wanted to end apartheid.
19.24	Nelson and Winnie Mandela	They are leaving prison together.	Because Nelson is finally free after twenty-seven years, and apartheid is ending.
	Nelson Mandela and F. W. de Klerk	They are getting the Nobel Peace Prize together.	Because they ended apartheid in South Africa.
	Nelson and a Springboks player	The Springboks won the Rugby World Cup in South Africa and Nelson gave them their prize.	Because Nelson thought, "Maybe sport will bring us together," and some white South African people started to think "Maybe Nelson is a good president."
