Elizabeth: Lavinia has already asked me about Morris Townsend. I don't know why, because he doesn't want to be her lover. She's very strange.

Dr. Sloper: 1

Elizabeth: Arthur's mother told me some things. He's about thirty years old. He inherited a small amount of money but he spent it all in a few years and he doesn't have a job. He lives with his sister, Mrs. Montgomery. She's a widow with five children.

Dr. Sloper: 2

Elizabeth: I don't know. He traveled all around the world but he wants to stay in New York now and begin life seriously.

Dr. Sloper: 3

Elizabeth: Why? Don't you believe that it is possible? You never think well of poor Catherine. She will inherit $30,000 a year!

Dr. Sloper: 4

Elizabeth: No, I think well of her, too. She's a lovely girl. You always think that no man will want her and it's not true.

Dr. Sloper: 5

- a He has no money, so does he spend her money?
- b I know nothing about him I'm afraid as he has only just arrived in town.
- c It is possible that this man is not a problem, but maybe I should ask my sister Elizabeth about him.
- d No, but maybe he'll propose next time!
- e No man has ever given Catherine any attention before. She's not beautiful or intelligent. Men prefer charming girls, like your daughters.
- f So is he serious about Catherine?
- g You think well of her money!
- h What can you tell me about him?
