3a	Who is in the picture?	Where are they and what are they doing?	Why is this scene important?
	Charlotte Bartlett	She is in George Emerson's room in the pension in Florence when she finds a note on the wall.	Because it gives Charlotte a bad feeling about what might happen.
	George and Lucy	They are in the middle of a field of violets in Fiesole when George kisses Lucy.	This is when George first shows his feelings for Lucy. Charlotte sees them together.
	Cecil and Lucy	Lucy is going to play tennis and she is angry with Cecil because he has given the house to the Emersons to live in as a joke.	George will come back into Lucy's life and Lucy is learning that Cecil is not kind.
	George, Cecil, Lucy and her mother	Cecil, Lucy and her mother are walking near the pond when they see George, Freddy and Mr Beebe swimming, naked.	It shows the free thinking of George, Freddy and Mr Beebe, and how differently Cecil sees it with his upper-class manners.

	Who is in the picture?	Where are they and what are they doing?	Why is this scene important?
	Cecil, Lucy and George	Cecil is reading part of Miss Lavish's book about Florence to George and Lucy.	They are the people that the book is about.
	Lucy and Mr Emerson	Lucy comes back home to find Mr Emerson waiting for her.	He tells her to love George and not Cecil, who can never make her happy.
