

Chapter 1

- 1 The three farms are in a village.
- 2 Bean never eats any food.
- 3 Because they are not good men.

Chapter 2

- 4 They have four little foxes.
- 5 He goes down to the village.
- 6 The wind coming from the north will take away the smell of the farmers.

Chapter 3

- 7 He thinks he hears a little animal in the grass.
- 8 He sees a gun in the dark.
- 9 They want to bring their diggers to get Mr Fox out of the hole.

Chapter 4

- 10 Stones begin coming into the hole.
- 11 The foxes dig down (into the ground).
- 12 People from the village laugh at the farmers.

Chapter 5

- 13 Bean shouts this to Mr Fox.
- 14 They eat their dinners outside their tents by the foxes' hole.
- 15 Boggis holds a hot chicken above the foxes' hole.

Chapter 6

- 16 They wait for three days and three nights.
- 17 His plan is to do more digging.
- 18 Mrs Fox tries to stand up, but cannot.

Chapter 7

- 19 Because they are tired and hungry.
- 20 It goes to Boggis's Chicken House.
- 21 He gives three chickens to one of the small foxes.

Chapter 8

- 22 Badger and a small badger come through the hole.
- 23 Because there are people with guns everywhere.
- 24 He says they must come and eat with the fox family.

Chapter 9

- 25 Thousands and thousands of the best, fattest ducks and lots of other food are on the shelves.
- 26 They take them for some of the animals that only eat vegetables.
- 27 Because their children need food, and the farmers want to kill them.

Chapter 10

- 28 They find hundreds and hundreds of bottles of cider.
- 29 It is under Bean's house.
- 30 The animals do not move.

Chapter 11

- 31 She wants its head.
- 32 She takes a bottle from next to Mr Fox.
- 33 She takes two cider bottles.

Chapter 12

- 34 She feels happy when Mr Fox and the little foxes arrive.
- 35 He wants to make a little village with streets and houses under the ground.
- 36 They are outside their tents in the rain.
