

Chapter 1

- 1 A big angry animal escaped from London Zoo, and it ate James's parents in the street in the middle of the afternoon.
- 2 He had to go to live with his two aunts.
- 3 He asks to go to the beach.

Chapter 2

- 4 He finds an old man in funny green clothes in the garden.
- 5 He will never be lonely, frightened or sad again.
- 6 They all go under the ground.

Chapter 3

- 7 It is on the highest branch.
- 8 He can feel magic.
- 9 Because she can make a lot of money with it.

Chapter 4

- 10 They begin selling tickets to see their giant peach.
- 11 He feels afraid in the garden because it is dark and quiet.
- 12 He crawls in through a hole in the side of the peach.

Chapter 5

- 13 Four pairs of black eyes are all looking at James.
- 14 He thinks that they want to eat him.
- 15 She makes him a soft hammock with her spider silk.

Chapter 6

- 16 The Centipede eats through the peach stem with his sharp teeth.
- 17 They hear the giant peach rolling quickly across the garden.
- 18 They are as flat as paper dolls from a picture book.

Chapter 7

- 19 It rolls past some cows, then some sheep, then some horses, and then some pigs.
- 20 It sinks like a stone, then it comes up again and floats on the water.
- 21 The Earthworm is only happy when he is sad.

Chapter 8

- 22 They see lots of sharks swimming around the peach.
- 23 Because the sharks start to eat the peach.
- 24 He will lift it out of the sea by putting one end of Miss Spider's string around a bird's neck and the other end around the stem of the peach.

Chapter 9

- 25 They are holding the Earthworm's tail because they need to pull him quickly inside the tunnel.
- 26 Because she is too tired.
- 27 He begins to play beautiful music.

Chapter 10

- 28 Because it is soft and quiet, and you can see many strange things.
- 29 They are twice as tall as people.
- 30 They throw hailstones at the peach.

Chapter 11

- 31 Because he sees the skyscrapers.
- 32 A huge aeroplane flying over them cut through all the strings.
- 33 They see a giant ball falling from the sky.

Chapter 12

- 34 600 police officers and 200 firefighters arrive in cars and trucks to get the peach down.
- 35 They think he is an alien.
- 36 Hundreds of children visit the peach stone every day.
